The Report

To the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America:

THE Joint Commission on the Revision and Enrichment of the Book of Common Prayer, appointed in 1913, respectfully submits its second report. This report is divided into two parts. Part I contains the report proper, with such comments and explanations on the recommendations of the Commission as it seems advisable to make at this time. Part II contains the Schedule of the Recommendations for Revision proposed to the Convention.

The Schedule is arranged in the following manner. Its different parts are numbered with Roman numerals, I, II, III, etc., corresponding to the different Services, or sections, of the Book of Common Prayer. Under each number is given the title of the Service, or section, in the order in which it is proposed that these shall occur in the revised book. There is then printed the Resolution for amendment, and this Resolution is understood to be repeated before each item of the section in question. These items are numbered with Arabic numerals in parentheses. Against these items are placed certain marks for information, as follows:—

The mark app. signifies that the item in question was approved and passed by the Convention of 1916, and if passed by the present Convention will be a finally adopted amendment to the Prayer Book.

The mark mod. signifies that the item in question was passed by the Convention of 1916, but that the Commission for weighty reasons is making some modification in the recommendation as then passed. The Commission realizes that such recommendation, if approved by the Convention, will delay final action, but believes that it is the mind of the Church that it is more important to attain an ultimately satisfactory result than to gain time by hurrying through the work of revision.

The items against which stand no special marks are items that were presented in our previous report in 1916, but not acted upon, either exactly as then presented, or with slight modifications; or else they are entirely new matter adopted by the Commission since 1916.

No attempt is made where action was taken by one House and not by the other in 1916 to make any record of this fact. This is not because the action of one House or the other at that time is not of interest, or has not been carefully considered by the Commission, but because any attempt to record such actions would complicate the report, and also because an item which failed to pass the Convention has no standing, and must necessarily be approached as new material.

Every memorial presented to the Convention, or received by the Commission, from Provincial Synods, together with every resolution presented to the Convention and referred to the Commission, has received very careful consideration. The final result of the Commission's study of these matters will appear in the Schedule as reported. It is not deemed necessary to refer specifically to each individual reference of this kind.

It may be said, furthermore, that every communication or suggestion by letter or otherwise which has come to the Commission has received the most careful and painstaking consideration.

The report is signed by the Chairman and Secretary of the Commission, and it is intended by this method to signify that the great majority of the recommendations are unanimously approved by the Commission, or have a substantial unanimity. There are, of course, items from which any given member of the Commission will dissent, or in regard to which he may feel indifferent. It is understood that any member of the Commission is free to express his dissent in regard to any item, either in the Convention or in any way which may seem best to him.

The names of the members of the Commission from the beginning are printed on another page, in such a way as to show both the present members and the changes which have been made from time to time.

There are certain matters in regard to which the Commission wishes to make comment, though in general it is believed that it will be best to let the Schedule speak for itself. These matters are here taken up under numbers corresponding to the numbered sections of the Schedule.

I. (a) The Order of the Parts.—Changes have been made in the order of the parts of the book for practical reasons, and in the belief that they will render the book more easily usable. The same reason applies to the titles which are suggested for the different divisions of the book.

(b) Omissions.—It will be noted that Forms of Prayer to be Used at Sea, and the Visitation of Prisoners, are dropped from the Book of Common Prayer, only a prayer from each being retained among the Prayers and Thanksgivings. It does not seem necessary to print the Office for Thanksgiving Day as a separate Office, and its parts have accordingly been distributed. Especially is it to be noted that Family Prayer has been removed from the Prayer Book proper, with the proposal that it be printed at the end of the volume after the Articles of Religion, a place which will more readily command attention. Certain additional prayers have been provided that they may be tested by use, and that in this collection prayers may be withdrawn or added from time to time without the necessity of going through the usual process of Prayer Book revision.

(c) New Services.—There is only one new Office proposed for the Book. This is the Office for the Admission of Deaconesses. It is believed that the inclusion of this Office will commend itself, and that it is the mind of the Church that the work of women in the Church should be recognized by giving this Office a place in the Book of Common Prayer.

The Commission has considered the question of including other new Offices which are not for Special Occasions, like the Admission of Deaconesses, but for general use. The greater flexibility which is recommended in the new General Rubric "Concerning the Service of the Church" gives opportunity for the use of such Offices. Nevertheless, the Commission does not deem it wise to propose the incorporation of new Offices in the Prayer Book itself. It does deem it desirable, however, that the General Convention should sanction the experimental use of certain new Offices, such as a Short Office of Prayer, the Office of Compline, an Office for Missions, and certain others, the intention being that these should be placed immediately after Family Prayer with its additional prayers, and be bound up with the Prayer Book between the same covers.

(d) The Calendar of Memorial Days.—In advocating the printing of certain names against the appointed dates in the Calendar, the Commission believes that it is giving expression to a growing need for a larger realization on the part of the Church of the Communion of Saints. The observance of days of commemoration in various places in the Church is proving helpful. In some cases men are commemorated who have lived and influenced the Church in recent years. In compiling a list, however, the Commission has found the difficulties in the way of including the names of more recent worthies to be practically insuperable. The list proposed is therefore the traditional one of the so-called Black Letter Saints. This has, however, been carefully studied, and additions and subtractions have been made. It should be stated, furthermore, that the compelling argument for proposing this list in the mind of the Commission was a practical one. There is no Church in Christendom more truly cosmopolitan than ours, and it seems peculiarly appropriate that somewhere in the Prayer Book days should be appointed for the commemoration of patron saints of various nations and races. Moreover, there are many churches bearing the names of some of these saints, and these parishes may very naturally desire to observe their name-days. The Commission recommends as a part of its report a common Collect, Epistle, and Gospel for a Saint's Day, and this may obviously be used where any one of the memorial days is to be observed.

(e) New Tables.—The Commission has provided tables of the Christian Year, giving in outline the sequence of seasons and days. It is believed that these will be of distinct educational value. A table of the precedence of Holy Days has also been compiled, which will be obviously convenient.

VI. The Psalter.—Recommendations made in 1916 by the Commission in regard to the Psalter were for the most part adopted by the Convention. Further study of the matter has convinced the Commission that other recommendations should be made. These recommendations cover two points. The first is the printing of certain Psalms in sections, indicated by a division in the page, which will make possible the use of parts of Psalms and will give opportunity for omitting, for instance, the imprecatory sections of certain Psalms. The second section concerns the text. The Commission believes that the translation as it stands in the Prayer Book should remain as far as possible intact, but in the interest of edification a few corrections have been made in translation, where the meaning is at present obscure, or clearly erroneous.

VII. The Holy Communion.—The minor amendments offered by the Commission in the Order for the Holy Communion speak for themselves. Such additions as are proposed in the way of enrichment are permissive except in the case of the Proper Prefaces. The form proposed for the printing and the use of the Ten Commandments is believed by the Commission to be worthy of approval. The Commandments appear in full as in their present form, but so arranged that they may be read in the shortened form.

In the order of the parts of the Office, the Commission is recommending only two changes. In general, it may be said that in the great services of the congregation, the Holy Communion, Morning and Evening Prayer, and the Litany, changes in the order or outline of the Offices have been deemed undesirable. The only exceptions of any importance are the removal of the Prayer of Humble Access to a place immediately before the Communion, and the placing of the Lord's Prayer immediately after the Prayer of Consecration.

VIII. Collects, Epistles and Gospels.—In this section, certain amendments are offered, which the Commission believes will commend themselves. Prominent among them are the provision for the recognition of the Baptism of our Lord on the second Sunday after the Epiphany, and the inclusion of the Parable of the Prodigal Son among the Gospels of the Lenten season. The enrichment afforded by the provision of certain new Collects, Epistles and Gospels will, it is also believed, meet a real need of the Church.

IX–XVIII.—In the case of the Occasional Offices, in contrast to the Congregational Offices, the changes proposed are numerous, and affect both order and contents. This is in response to what the Commission feels to be a very widespread demand, not only in all parts of our Church, but throughout the whole Anglican Communion. For the most part the reasons for the recommendations, as given in the Schedule, are evident. A few explanatory comments, however, are not out of place.

(a) Baptism.—The three Offices for the Public and the Private Baptism of Infants and for the Baptism of those of Riper Years have been combined in one. It will be apparent upon inspection that one form, with appropriate rubrical directions for various conditions, is enough. It is desirable to discourage private baptism where it is not really unavoidable. In the revised formula some of the homiletical parts of the old Offices have been omitted.

(b) Catechism.—The substitution of the two Offices of Instruction for the present catechetical text-book seems to be more in keeping with the general scheme of the Prayer Book as a book of devotion. Nothing in the present Catechism is lost. On the other hand, some new matter is added. It is believed that this form of instruction will increase the educational value of this part of the book.

(c) Visitation of the Sick.—The revision of this Office will render it, in the belief of the Commission, more usable and helpful. It provides that which experience shows to be needful, namely, a compendium of material. A number of new prayers and collects have been added, including a Litany for the Dying. A form has been added for the Anointing of the Sick with oil, or for the Laying on of Hands, with prayer.

(d) Burial of the Dead.—The principal changes that have been made in this Office are, first, the addition of four Psalms for optional use; second, the provision of an alternate Lesson; third, a more distinct Commemoration of the Departed.

A new Form for the Burial of a Child has been added, which is believed by the Commission to be more suited for such an occasion than the general Burial Office.

(e) The Ordinal.—The only important change proposed by the Commission is the provision of a Short Litany, especially adapted to Ordinations, which may be used optionally in place of the Litany.

In conclusion, the Commission recommends that the several Resolutions contained in the Schedule be adopted by the Convention.

d. THE COLLECTS, EPISTLES, AND GOSPELS to follow THE HOLY COMMUNION.

e. The PENITENTIAL OFFICE to a place at the end of the OCCASIONAL OFFICES.

* The resolution is printed once for the sake of brevity, but is understood to be repeated before each item.

a. Transfer the opening Sentences to follow immediately after the Sentences of Scripture for Trinity Sunday at Morning Prayer, and indent Thanksgiving Day.

b. Transfer the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel to a place among THE COLLECTS, EPISTLES, AND GOSPELS, as specified later in this Report, and prefix to them the title, Thanksgiving Day.

c. Transfer the Anthem to be used instead of the Venite, with its rubric, to precede the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel.

d. Strike out the second rubric on page 320, "The First Lesson shall be," etc., and insert the Lessons in the TABLE OF PROPER LESSONS FOR HOLY-DAYS, immediately after All Saints.

e. Transfer the Thanksgiving Prayer to THANKSGIVINGS, and insert it as the first of the Thanksgivings, omitting the rubric which precedes it, and prefixing this title, A THANKSGIVING TO ALMIGHTY GOD FOR THE FRUITS OF THE EARTH AND ALL THE OTHER BLESSINGS OF HIS MERCIFUL PROVIDENCE.

(3) Amend directions entitled CONCERNING THE SERVICE OF THE CHURCH, page vii, so as to read as follows:

The Order for the Celebration of the Lord's Supper or Holy Communion, the Order for Morning Prayer, the Order for Evening Prayer, and the Litany, as set forth in this Book, are the regular Services appointed for Public Worship in this Church, and shall be used accordingly; Provided, that in addition to these Services the Minister, in his discretion, subject to the direction of the Ordinary, may use other devotions taken from this Book or from any Book set forth by the authority of this Church or from Holy Scripture; and Provided further, that, subject to the direction of the Ordinary, in Mission Churches or Chapels, and when expressly authorized by the Ordinary in Cathedral or Parish Churches or other places, such other devotions as aforesaid may be used when the edification of the Congregation so requires in place of the Order for Morning Prayer or the Order for Evening Prayer.

The Litany may be used either in place of the Prayers that follow the Collect for Grace in the Order for Morning Prayer, or in place of the Prayers that follow the Collect for Aid against Perils in Evening Prayer, or immediately before the Service for Holy Communion, or it may be used in a separate Service.

For Days of Fasting and Thanksgiving, appointed by the Civil or Ecclesiastical Authority, and for other special occasions for which no Service or Prayer hath been provided in this Book, the Bishop may set forth such form or forms as he shall see fit, in which case none other shall be used.

In the prescribed services of this Church, prayers may be used, taken from the Service Books authorized by any Church in communion with this Church; provided the Order for the Administration of the Sacraments and other Rites set forth by this Church shall not be varied.

NOTE: That in the directions for the several Services in this Book it is not intended by the use of any particular word denoting vocal utterance to prescribe the tone or manner of their recitation.

Mod. (4) Make the following alterations concerning the Psalter:

a. Amend the directions entitled THE ORDER HOW THE PSALTER IS APPOINTED TO BE READ, page vii, so as to read as follows:

THE USE OF THE PSALTER

In places where it is convenient, the Psalter shall be read through once every month.

The Minister shall, on the days for which they are appointed, or on the eves thereof, use one or more of the Proper Psalms, as set forth in the Table of Proper Psalms.

But Note, That on other days, instead of reading from the Psalter, as divided for Daily Morning and Evening Prayer, he may read one or more of the Psalms for the Day, or one or more of the Psalms from the Selections set forth by this Church.

And Note further, that in the case of a Psalm which is divided into sections, the Minister may use a section or sections of such Psalm.

b. Strike out the Table of Proper Psalms on Certain Days and the Table of Selections of Psalms following The Order how the Psalter is appointed to be read, and substitute for them the Tables of Psalms proposed hereafter in this Report.

(5) Amend the directions entitled THE ORDER HOW THE REST OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURE IS APPOINTED TO BE READ, page viii, by inserting in the last paragraph thereof after the words "Charitable Collections" the words "and on other special occasions," and omitting the word "and" before "on occasions," in the second line.

(6) Provide, in place of the present Calendar with Lessons, a Calendar, to be printed immediately after the Tables of Lessons, which shall contain the Sunday Letters and Golden Numbers, and the Holy Days of the present book against their proper dates, together with the following Memorial Days to be inserted against the dates given, and in distinctive and differing type, namely:—

Relieve the distressed, protect the innocent, awaken the guilty: and forasmuch as thou alone bringest light out of darkness, and good out of evil, grant to these thy servants, that by the power of thy Holy Spirit their souls may be set free from the chains of sin, and they may be brought to newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(28) Insert the following after the Prayer For Malefactors, page 44.

A Bidding Prayer.

Which may be used before or after Sermons, or on Special Occasions.

GOOD Christian people, I bid your prayers for Christ's holy Catholic Church, the blessed company of all faithful people; that it may please God to confirm and strengthen it in purity of faith, in holiness of life, and in perfectness of love, and to restore to it the witness of visible unity; and more especially for that branch of the same planted by God in this land, whereof we are members; that in all things it may work according to God's will, serve him faithfully, and worship him acceptably.

Ye shall pray for the President of the United States, and for the Governor of this State, and for all that are in authority; that all, and every one of them, may serve truly in their several callings to the glory of God, and the edifying and well-governing of the people, remembering the account they shall be called upon to give at the last great day.

Ye shall also pray for the ministers of God's Holy Word and Sacraments; for Bishops (and herein more especially for the Bishop of this Diocese), that they may minister faithfully and wisely the discipline of Christ; likewise for all Priests and Deacons (and herein more especially for the Clergy here residing), that they may shine as lights in the world, and in all things may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour.

And ye shall pray for a due supply of persons fitted to serve God in the Ministry and in the State; and to that end, as well as for the good education of all the youth of this land, ye shall pray for all schools, colleges, and seminaries of sound and godly learning, and for all whose hands are open for their maintenance; that whatsoever tends to the advancement of true religion and useful learning may for ever flourish and abound.

Ye shall pray for all the people of these United States, that they may live in the true faith and fear of God, and in brotherly charity one towards another.

Ye shall pray also for all who travel by land or sea; for all prisoners and captives; for all who are in sickness or in sorrow; for all who have fallen into grievous sin; for all who, through temptation, ignorance, helplessness, grief, trouble, dread, or the near approach of death, especially need our prayers.

Ye shall also praise God for rain and sunshine; for the fruits of the earth; for the products of honest industry; and for his good gifts, temporal and spiritual, to us and to all men.

Finally, ye shall yield unto God most high praise and hearty thanks for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in all his saints, who have been the choice vessels of his grace and the light of the world in their several generations; and pray unto God, that we may have grace to direct our lives after their good examples; that, this life ended, we may be made partakers with them of the glorious resurrection, and the life everlasting.

And now, brethren, summing up all our petitions, and all our thanksgivings, in the words which Christ hath taught us, let us say,

Our Father, etc.

¶ Note, That the Minister in his discretion may omit any of the clauses in the foregoing Bid- ding Prayer, or may add others, as occasion may require.

(29) For the Thanksgiving For Rain, page 45 of the Prayer Book, substitute the following:

For Rain.

O GOD our heavenly Father, by whose gracious providence the former and the latter rain descend upon the earth, that it may bring forth fruit for the use of man; We give thee humble thanks that it doth please thee now to send us rain to our great comfort and to the glory of thy holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Unity

O LORD Jesus Christ, who saidst unto thine Apostles, Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; Regard not our sins, but the faith of thy Church; and grant to it that peace and unity which is according to thy will; who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

VI. THE ORDER FOR THE HOLY COMMUNION

RESOLVED: The House of Bishops (the House of Deputies) concurring: That the following change be made in the Order for the Administration of the Lord's Supper; and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) Change the title to read as follows:

THE DIVINE LITURGY,

THE ORDER FOR THE LORD'S SUPPER, OR HOLY EUCHARIST, commonly called

THE HOLY COMMUNION

(2) Tranfer the first and second rubrics, page 221, to follow the rubric, ¶And if any of the consecrated Bread and Wine remain, etc., at the end of the Office.

(3) Make the third rubric, page 221, to be the first rubric, and change the same so that it shall read as follows:

¶At the Communion-time the Holy Table shall have upon it a fair white linen cloth. And the Priest, standing humbly before the Holy Table, shall say the Lord's Prayer and the Collect following, the People kneeling; but the Lord's Prayer may be omitted at the discretion of the Priest.

(4) Amend the rubric after the Collect so as to read as follows:

¶Then may the Priest, turning to the People, rehearse distinctly The Ten Commandments; and the People, still kneeling, shall, after every Commandment, ask God mercy for their transgressions for the time past, and grace to keep the law for the time to come.

And Note, that in rehearsing the Ten Commandments, the Priest may omit that part of the Commandment which is inset.

(5) Omit the second rubric on page 222.

(6) Make the Ten Commandments to read as follows:

GOD spake these words, and said:

I am the Lord thy God; Thou shalt have none other gods but me.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them;

for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and show mercy unto thousands in them that love me and keep my commandments.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain;

for the Lord will not hold him guiltless, that taketh his Name in vain.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day.

Six days shalt thou labor, and do all that thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work; thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Honor thy father and thy mother;

that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt do no murder.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not steal.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is his.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee.

(7) Amend the first rubric on page 224 so as to read as follows:

THOU shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

(10) Insert the versicle and response

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.
Let us pray.

after the three-fold Kyrie on page 224, omitting the third rubric on that page together with the Collect following it.

¶And after the Gospel may be said:
Praise be to thee, O Christ.

(12) Amend the rubric before the Creed so as to read as follows:

(15) For the Offertory Sentences substitute the following:

REMEMBER the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. Acts xx. 35.

While we have time, let us do good unto all men; and especially unto them that are of the household of faith. Gal. vi. 10.

God is not unrighteous, that he will forget your works, and labour that proceedeth of love; which love ye have showed for his Name's sake, who have ministered unto the saints, and yet do minister. Heb. vi. 10.

Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. St. John iv. 35, 36.

Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all. 1 Chron. xxix. 11.

All things come of thee, O LORD, and of thine own have we given thee. 1 Chron. xxix. 14.

(16) For the three rubrics following the Offertory Sentences substitute these:

¶And Note, That these Sentences may be used on any other occasion of Public Worship when the offerings of the People are to be received.

¶The Deacons, Church-wardens, or other fit persons appointed for that purpose, shall receive the Alms for the Poor, and other Offerings of the People, in a decent Basin to be provided by the Parish; and reverently bring it to the Priest, who shall humbly present and place it upon the Holy Table.

¶And the Priest shall then offer, and shall place upon the Holy Table, the Bread and the Wine.

¶And when the Alms and Oblations are being received and presented, there may be sung a Hymn, or an Offertory Anthem in the words of Holy Scripture or of the Book of Common Prayer, under the direction of the Priest.

and godly love. We beseech thee also, so to direct and dispose the hearts of all Christian Rulers, that they may truly and impartially administer justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of thy true religion, and virtue.

Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops and other Ministers, that they may, both by their life and doctrine, set forth thy true and lively Word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments.

And to all thy People give thy heavenly grace; and especially to this congregation here present; that, with meek heart and due reverence, they may hear, and receive thy holy Word; truly serving thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life.

And we most humbly beseech thee, of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succour all those who, in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity.

We also bless thy holy Name for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear. And we yield unto thee most high praise and hearty thanks for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in all thy saints, who, from the beginning, have been the choice vessels of thy grace, and lights of the world in their several generations; beseeching thee to give us grace so to follow the example of their stedfastness in thy faith and obedience to thy holy commandments, that we, and all those who are of the mystical body of thy Son, may be partakers of thy heavenly kingdom. THE Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; to appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.

The Gospel. St. Matt. ii. 19.

WHEN Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life. And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee: and he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

(18) That the following rubric be inserted after the Collect for the Epiphany, page 69:

¶This Collect is to be said daily throughout the Octave, after the Collect for the day.

(19) That in the place of the Gospel for the Second Sunday after the Epiphany, page 74 of the Prayer Book, there be substituted Mark 1:1–11, as follows:—

THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God; as it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee. The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins. And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey; and preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose. I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost. And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan. And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him: And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

ALMIGHTY God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy, but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified; Mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Tuesday before Easter

The Collect.

(30) That the third Collect for Good Friday be amended so as to read as follows:

from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of thy Word; and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to thy fold, that they may be made one flock under one shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

(31) That the rubric on page 125, Easter Day, providing certain Anthems in place of Venite, be amended to read as follows:

(39) That the title at the top of page 143 of the Prayer Book be changed to read "Pentecost, commonly called Whitsunday."

(40) That the title on page 148 of the Prayer Book be changed to read "The First Sunday after Pentecost, commonly called Trinity Sunday," and that the following Sundays be renamed and renumbered in conformity with this change.

(44) That in place of the Epistle for St. Thomas's Day, page 190 of the Prayer Book, there be inserted the following. Heb. 10:35–11:3.

The Epistle. Heb. x. 35.

CAST not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward. For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry. Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul. Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence things not seen. For by it the elders obtained a good report. Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

(45) That in place of the Collect for St. James the Apostle (page 208) there be substituted the following, viz:—

BE thou, O Lord, the sanctifier and guardian of thy people, that following the example of thy holy apostle St. James, we may worthily confess thee in life and in death; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

(46) That the Collect for St. Luke's Day (page 215 P. B.) be amended so that it shall read, beginning with the petition (line 3):

GRANT that by the wholesome medicines of the doctrine delivered by him, the diseases of our souls and bodies may be healed; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

(47) That in place of the Epistle for St. Simon and St. Jude, page 217 of the Prayer Book, there be inserted the present Epistle for St. Thomas's Day, as follows, namely Eph. 2:19.

NOW therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth into an holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

(48) That a special Collect, Epistle, and Gospel be provided for A Saint's Day, as follows, to be placed after the Gospel for All Saints' Day.

A Saint's Day

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY and Everlasting God, who dost enkindle the flame of thy love in the hearts of the Saints; Grant to our minds the same faith and power of love, that as we rejoice in their triumphs, we may profit by their examples; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Or this

O ALMIGHTY God, who hast called us to faith in thee and hast compassed us about with so great a cloud of witnesses; Grant that we, being encouraged by the good examples of thy Saints, and especially of thy servant Saint [———] whom this day we commemorate, may persevere in running the race that is set before us until at length, through thy mercy, we, with them, attain to thine eternal joy; through him who is the author and finisher of our faith, thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Heb. xii. 1.

WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

The Gospel. St. Matt. xxv. 31.

WHEN the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats: and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: for I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

(49) That a special Collect, Epistle, and Gospel be provided for the Feast of the Dedication of a Church, as follows, to be placed after the Gospel for a Saint's Day.

Feast of the Dedication of a Church

The Collect.

O GOD, whom year by year we praise for the dedication of this church; Hear, we beseech thee, the prayers of thy people, and grant that whosoever shall worship before thee in this place, may obtain thy merciful aid and protection; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 Peter ii. 1.

THEREFORE laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings, as newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: if so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious. To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

The Gospel. St. Matt. xxi. 12.

JESUS went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves, and said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves. And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them. And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were sore displeased, and said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

(50) That a special Collect, Epistle, and Gospel be provided for the Ember-days, as follows, to be placed after the Gospel for Feast of the Dedication of a Church.

Ember Days

The Collect.

O ALMIGHTY God, who hast committed to the hands of men the ministry of reconciliation; We humbly beseech thee to put it into the hearts of many to seek this ministry, that so the bounds of thy kingdom may be enlarged; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Acts xiii. 44.

THE next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God. But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth. And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

The Gospel. St. Luke iv. 16.

JESUS came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read. And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written, The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord. And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him. And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

(51) That a Collect, Epistle, and Gospel be provided for the Rogation Days, as follows, to be placed after the Gospel for Ember Days.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY God, Lord of heaven and earth; We beseech thee favorably to behold thy people who call upon thee, and to send thy blessing down from heaven to give us a fruitful season; that we who are constantly receiving thy bounty may evermore give thanks unto thee in thy holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth, with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God world without end. Amen.

For the Epistle. Ezek. xxxiv. 25.

AND I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing. And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the Lord, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them. And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely and none shall make them afraid. And I will raise up for them a plant of renown, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more. Thus shall they know that I the Lord their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord God. And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God.

The Gospel. Luke xi. 5.

JESUS said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves; For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him? And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee. I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth. And I say unto you, Ask and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children; how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

(52) That a special Collect, Epistle, and Gospel be provided for Independence Day, July Fourth, as follows, to follow the Gospel for the Rogation Days.

Independence Day

July Fourth

The Collect.

O ALMIGHTY Lord, grant, we beseech thee, to all the people of this land, the spirit of obedience to thy commandments, that walking humbly in thy fear, we may, under thy mighty protection, possess our liberties in righteousness and peace; through, etc.

For the Epistle. Deut. x. 17.

THE Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward: he doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment. Love ye therefore the stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt. Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God; him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave, and swear by his name. He is thy praise, and he is thy God, that hath done for thee these great and terrible things which thine eyes have seen.

The Gospel. St. Matt. v. 43.

JESUS said, Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so? Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

(53) That the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel for Thanksgiving Day, with their proper headings, be here inserted to follow the Gospel for Independence Day.

(54) That a special Collect, Epistle, and Gospel be provided as follows, for use in connection with the Solemnization of Matrimony, to follow the Gospel for Thanksgiving Day.

Solemnization of Matrimony

The Collect.

O ETERNAL God, we humbly beseech thee favourably to behold these thy servants now joined in wedlock according to thy holy ordinance; and grant that they, seeking first thy kingdom and righteousness, may obtain the manifold blessings of thy grace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Eph. v. 20.

GIVE thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body. Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church: for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church. Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

The Gospel. St. Matt. xix. 4.

JESUS answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, and said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

(55) That a special Collect, Epistle, and Gospel, as follows, be provided for use at the Burial of the Dead, to follow the Gospel for the Solemnization of Matrimony.

Burial of the Dead

The Collect.

O ETERNAL Lord God, who holdest all souls in life; Vouchsafe, we beseech thee, to thy whole Church in paradise and on earth thy light and thy peace; and grant that we, following the good examples of those who have served thee here and are now at rest, may at the last enter with them into thine unending joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. 2 Esdras ii. 34.

I SAY unto you, O ye nations, that hear and understand, look for your shepherd, he shall give you everlasting rest; for he is nigh at hand, that shall come in the end of the world. Be ready to the rewards of the kingdom, for the everlasting light shall shine upon you for evermore. Flee the shadow of this world, receive the joyfulness of your glory: I call to witness my saviour openly. O receive that which is given you of the Lord, and be joyful, giving thanks unto him that hath called you to heavenly kingdoms. Arise up and stand, and behold the number of those that be sealed in the feast of the Lord; they that withdrew them from the shadow of the world have received glorious garments of the Lord. Look upon thy number, O Sion, and make up the reckoning of those of thine that are clothed in white, which have fulfilled the law of the Lord. The number of thy children, whom thou longedst for, is fulfilled; beseech the power of the Lord, that thy people, which have been called from the beginning, may be hallowed. I saw upon the mount Sion a great multitude, whom I could not number, and they all praised the Lord with songs. And in the midst of them there was a young man of a high stature, taller than all the rest, and upon every one of their heads he sets crowns, and was more exalted; whereat I marvelled greatly. So I asked the angel, and said, What are these, my Lord? He answered and said unto me, These be they that have put off the mortal clothing, and put on the immortal, and have confessed the name of God: now are they crowned, and receive palms. Then said I unto the angel, What young man is he that setteth crowns upon them, and giveth them palms in their hands? So he answered and said unto me, It is the Son of God, whom they have confessed in the world.

The Gospel. St. John vi. 37.

JESUS said unto his disciples, All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

VIII. THE MINISTRATION OF BAPTISM

RESOLVED: The House of Bishops (the House of Deputies) concurring: That the following Office be substituted for the three Offices now standing in the Book of Common Prayer (pages 244–265) and that the proposed change be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

The Ministration of PUBLIC BAPTISM To be used in the Church.

¶When there are children to be baptized, the Parents or Sponsors shall give knowledge thereof to the Minister. And then the Godfathers and Godmothers, and the People with the Children, must be ready at the Font, either immediately after the Second Lesson at Morning or Evening Prayer, or at such other time as the Minister shall appoint.

¶And the Minister coming to the Font, and standing there, shall say as follows. But Note, that if he hath already assured himself that the Child (or Person) hath not been baptized, the question may be omitted.

Hath this Child (or Person) been already baptized, or no?

DEARLY beloved, let us beseech God the Father almighty, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that this Child (or Person) may be baptized with Water and the Holy Ghost, and received into Christ's holy Church, and be made a living member of the same.

¶Then shall the Minister say,

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY and immortal God, the aid of all who need, the helper of all who flee to thee for succour, the life of those who believe, and the resurrection of the dead; We call upon thee for this Child (or Person), that he, coming to thy holy Baptism, may receive remission of sin, by spiritual regeneration. Receive him, O Lord, as thou hast promised by thy well-beloved Son, saying, Ask, and ye shall have; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. So give now unto us who ask; let us who seek, find; open the gate unto us who knock; that this Child (or Person) may enjoy the everlasting benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternal kingdom which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶Then the Minister shall say as followeth: or else shall pass immediately to the Questions; or to the Prayer following them.

Hear the words of the Gospel.

THEY brought young children to Christ, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

Or this

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

Or this

JESUS came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

¶ After the Gospel is read, the Minister shall add, Let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks unto our heavenly Father, and say,

¶ Then shall the Minister and the People together say,

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, heavenly Father, We give thee humble thanks, That thou vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy Holy Spirit to this Child (or Person), That he may be born again, And be made an heir of everlasting salvation; Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, Now and for ever. Amen.

And then the Minister, addressing the parents and god-parents shall say:

DEARLY beloved, ye have brought this child here to be baptized, and have signified thereby your desire that he should become a Christian, and should be brought up in the fellowship of Christ's holy Church.

Will you then faithfully and earnestly teach this child to obey and follow our Lord Jesus Christ, resisting the temptations of the world, the flesh and the devil, and renouncing all that is evil?

Answer. I will.

Will you diligently instruct him in all the Articles of the Christian Faith as contained in the Apostles' Creed?

Answer. I will.

Will you teach him both by precept and example to keep God's holy will and commandments, and to walk in the same all the days of his life?

Answer. I will.

¶ The Font then being filled with pure Water, the Minister shall say,

O MERCIFUL God, grant that the old Adam in this Child (or Person) may be so buried, that the new man may be raised up in him. Amen.

Grant that all sinful affections may die in him, and that all things belonging to the Spirit may live and grow in him. Amen.

Grant that he may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph, against the devil, the world, and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that whosoever is here dedicated to thee by our office and ministry, may also be endued with heavenly virtues, and everlastingly rewarded, through thy mercy, O Blessed Lord God, who dost live, and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

ALMIGHTY, everliving God, whose most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our sins, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood; and gave commandment to his disciples, that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; Regard, we beseech thee, the supplications of thy congregation; sanctify this Water to the mystical washing away of sin; and grant that this Child, (or this thy servant) now to be baptized therein may receive the fulness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful children; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶Then the Minister shall take the Child into his hands, and shall say to the Godfathers and Godmothers, Name this Child.

¶And then, naming it after them, he shall dip it in the Water discreetly, or shall pour Water upon it, saying,

¶Or, the Minister shall take the Person to be baptized by the right hand.

NI baptize thee In the Name of the . Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

¶Then the Minister shall say,

We receive this Child (or Person) into the congregation of Christ's flock; and do * sign him with the sign of the Cross, in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified, and manfully to fight under his banner, against sin, the world, and the devil; and to continue Christ's faithful soldier and servant unto his life's end. Amen.

* Here the Minister shall make a Cross upon the Child's (or Person's) forehead.

¶If it is desired that the sign of the Cross be omitted, although the Church knoweth no worthy cause of scruple concerning the same, yet, in that case, the Minister may omit that part of the above which followeth the Immersion, or the pouring on of Water.

¶Then shall the Minister say,

The Lord be with you.

Answer: And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

¶Then shall the Minister say,

WE yield thee hearty thanks, most merciful Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this Child (or this thy Servant) with thy Holy Spirit, to receive him for thine own Child by adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church. And humbly we beseech thee to grant, that he, being dead unto sin, may live unto righteousness, and being buried with Christ in his death, may also be partaker of his resurrection; so that finally, with the residue of thy holy Church, he may be an inheritor of thine everlasting kingdom; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶Then the Minister may, at his discretion, add this Exhortation following:—

YE must remember, that it is your parts and duties to see that this Child be taught, so soon as he shall be able to learn, what are the obligations and the privileges of the Christian life. And that he may know these things the better, ye shall call upon him to worship God in his church on the Lord's Day; and ye shall provide, that he may learn the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health; and that this Child may be virtuously brought up to lead a godly and a Christian life; remembering always, that Baptism doth represent unto us our profession; which is, to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and to be made like unto him; that, as he died, and rose again for us, so should we, who are baptized, die from sin, and rise again unto righteousness; continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all virtue and godliness of living.

Ye are to take care that this Child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and is sufficiently instructed in such other matters as pertain to the Christian faith and to the leading of a Christian life.

¶In the foregoing Office, there may be said, at the discretion of the Minister, immediately before the Second Question, the Apostles' Creed, the Minister first pronouncing. Let us rehearse the Articles of our Belief.

¶The Minister of every parish shall often admonish the people that they defer not the baptism of their children, and that it is most convenient that Baptism should not be administered but upon Sundays and other Holy Days. Nevertheless, (if necessity so require) Baptism may be administered upon any other day.

¶There shall be for every Male-child to be baptized, when they can be had, two Godfathers and one Godmother; and for every Female, one Godfather and two Godmothers; and Parents shall be admitted as Sponsors, if it be desired.

¶When the foregoing Office is used for Adults, the Persons to be baptized shall themselves make answer to the Questions, as follows:—

Wilt thou obey and follow our Lord Jesus Christ, resisting the temptations of the world, the flesh and the devil, and renouncing all that is evil?

Answer. I will.

Dost thou believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith as contained in the Apostles' Creed?

Answer. I do.

Wilt thou be baptized in this Faith?

Answer. That is my desire.

Wilt thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

Answer. I will, by God's help.

¶And Note that at the time of the Baptism of an Adult, there shall be present with him at the Font at least two Witnesses.

¶When necessity requires that the Baptism take place in a private house, in consideration of extreme sickness, or other great and reasonable cause, then the following form shall suffice:—

The Child (or Person) being named by some one who is present, the Minister shall pour Water upon him, saying these words:

NI baptize thee In the Name of the . Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

After which shall be said the Lord's Prayer, and the Thanksgiving from the Office, beginning, We yield thee hearty thanks, etc.

¶If there be reasonable doubt concerning the baptism of any person, such person may be baptized in the manner herein appointed; saving that, at the immersion or the pouring of water, the Minister shall use this form of Words:

If thou art not already baptized, N., I baptize thee In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

IX. OFFICES OF INSTRUCTION

RESOLVED: The House of Bishops (the House of Deputies) concurring: That the following Offices of Instruction be substituted for the Catechism in the Book of Common Prayer, and that the Catechism which now appears upon pages 266 to 272, being removed from the Prayer Book proper, be inserted immediately before the Articles of Religion; and that the proposed change be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

Offices of Instruction

I

After the singing of a Hymn, shall be said by the Minister and children together, all kneeling, the following Prayer, the Minister first pronouncing,

The Lord be with you.

Answer. And with thy Spirit.

Minister. Let us pray.

LORD of all power and might, who art the author and giver of all good things; Graft in our hearts the love of thy Name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then, the children being seated, the Minister shall ask them the Questions which follow, the children reading or repeating the Answers as appointed:

Question.

WHAT is your Christian Name?

Answer. My Christian name is ———.

Question. Who gave you this name?

Answer. My Sponsors gave me this name in Baptism; wherein I was made a member of Christ, the child of God, and an inheritor of the kingdom of heaven.

Question. What did your Sponsors then undertake for you?

Answer. That they would faithfully and earnestly teach me to obey and follow our Lord Jesus Christ, resisting the temptations of the world, the flesh and the devil, and renouncing all that is evil; and would encourage me both by precept and example to keep God's holy will and commandments, and to walk in the same all the days of my life.

Question. Do you not think that you are bound to do so?

Answer. Yes, verily; and by God's help so

I will. And I heartily thank our heavenly Father, that he has called me to this state of salvation, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. And I pray unto God to give me his grace, that I may continue in the same unto my life's end.

Question. You said that your Sponsors undertook to teach you to obey and follow our Lord Jesus Christ. In what form of words do Christ's people express their faith in him, and their loyalty to him?

Answer. In the Apostles' Creed.

Then, all standing, shall be said the Apostles' Creed by the Minister and the children:

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary; Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead and buried: He descended into hell; The third day he rose again from the dead: He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty: From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; The holy Catholic Church; The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body: And the Life everlasting. Amen.

¶ After which, the Minister, turning to the children, shall ask the Question following, the children responding.

Question. What do you chiefly learn in these Articles of your Belief?

Answer. First, I learn to believe in God the Father, who hath made me, and all the world;

Secondly, in God the Son, who hath redeemed me, and all mankind;

Thirdly, in God the Holy Ghost, who sanctifieth me, and all the people of God.

And these three Persons in One God, I praise and magnify, saying:—

Minister and Children. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Here may be sung a Hymn, after which, the Minister, turning to the Children shall say:

Question. You said that your Sponsors undertook to encourage you in the keeping of God's holy will and commandments. Tell me how many Commandments there are, written in the Tables of the Law.

Answer. There are Ten Commandments, the same which God spake in the twentieth Chapter of Exodus, saying, I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Minister. The Lord be with you.
Answer. And with thy spirit.
Let us pray.

¶ Then shall be said this prayer by the Minister and children together, all kneeling:

O ALMIGHTY God, who alone canst order the unruly wills and affections of sinful men; Grant unto thy people, that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise; that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister repeat the Ten Commandments, and after every Commandment the Children shall say the appointed Prayer. But Note, That where it is so ordered, the Children may repeat the Commandments, the Minister saying the Prayer. And Note further, That the part of the Commandment which is inset may be omitted.

I. Thou shalt have none other gods but me.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

II. Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them;

for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and show mercy unto thousands in them that love me and keep my commandments.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain;

for the Lord will not hold him guiltless, that taketh his Name in vain.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day;

Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work; thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother;

that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is his.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee.

Minister:

GRANT to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right; that we, who cannot do any thing that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

After this, the Children being seated, the Minister, turning to them, shall ask the Questions which follow, the Children reading or repeating the answers.

Question. What do you chiefly learn from these Commandments?

Answer. I learn two things from these Commandments; my duty towards God, and my duty towards my neighbour.

Question. What is your duty towards God?

Answer. My duty towards God is:

I. To believe in him, to fear him, And to love him with all my heart, with all my mind, with all my soul, and with all my strength:

II. To worship him, to give him thanks: To put my whole trust in him, to call upon him:

III. To honour his holy Name and his Word:

IV. And to serve him truly all the days of my life.

Question. What is your duty towards your neighbour?

Answer. My duty towards my neighbour is, To love him as myself, and to do to all men as I would they should do unto me:

V. To love, honour, and succour my father and mother: To honor and obey the civil authority: To submit myself to all my governors, teachers, spiritual pastors, and masters: And to order myself in that lowliness and reverence which becometh a servant of God.

VI. To hurt nobody by word or deed: To bear no malice nor hatred in my heart:

VII. To keep my body in temperance, soberness, and chastity:

VIII. To keep my hands from picking and stealing: To be true and just in all my dealings.

IX. And to keep my tongue from evil-speaking, lying, and slandering:

X. Not to covet nor desire other men's goods; But to learn and labour truly to get my own living. And to do my duty in that state of life unto which it shall please God to call me.

Question. What is our Lord's Summary of these Commandments?

Answer. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

¶Then shall be a sung a Hymn, after which the Minister shall say as follows, the Children reading or repeating the response.

Question. My good Child, know this; that you are not able to do these things of yourself, nor to walk in the Commandments of God, and to serve him, without his special grace; which you must learn at all times to call for by diligent prayer. What do you desire in the Lord's Prayer?

Answer. In the Lord's Prayer, I desire my Lord God, our heavenly Father, who is the giver of all goodness,

To send his grace unto me, and to all people:

That we may worship him, serve him, and obey him, as we ought to do:

And I pray unto God, that he will send us all things that are needful both for our souls and bodies:

That he will be merciful unto us, and forgive us our sins:

That it will please him to save and defend us in all dangers both of soul and body; and that he will keep us from all sin and wickedness and from our spiritual enemy, and from everlasting death.

And this I trust he will do of his mercy and goodness, through our Lord Jesus Christ. And therefore I say, Amen, So be it.

Minister: Let us pray.

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Then shall be said this Prayer by the Minister and Children together:

O LORD Jesus Christ, who hast embraced us thy children with the arms of thy mercy, and made us living members of thy Holy Church; Give us grace, we pray thee, to remain steadfast in faith, obedient to thy word, and constant in prayer; that continuing thy faithful soldiers and servants, we may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph; for thy Name's sake who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

II

¶After the singing of a Hymn, there shall be said the Sentence by the Minister and children together as follows:

Come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord. And he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths.

Minister. Show thy servants thy work;

Children. And their children thy glory.

Minister. Let thy merciful kindness, O Lord, be upon us;

Children. As we do put our trust in thee.

Minister. Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us,

Children. But unto thy name be the praise.

Minister. Lord, hear our prayer,

Children. And let our cry come unto thee.

Minister. The Lord be with you,

Children. And with thy spirit.

Minister. Let us pray.

O ALMIGHTY God, who hast built thy Church upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the head cornerstone; Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their doctrine, that we may be made an holy temple acceptable unto thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MOST Gracious God, who hast gathered into thy Church a great company out of all nations; Fulfil, we pray thee, what thou hast foretold by thy Holy Prophets, that all the ends of the world may remember themselves and be turned unto thee; through the only Saviour of the world, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶Here may be sung a Hymn, after which, the children being seated, the Minister shall ask them the Questions concerning the Church which follow, the children responding:

Question. Why was the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper ordained?

Answer. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was ordained for the continual remembrance of the sacrifice of the death of Christ, and of the benefits which we receive thereby.

Question. What are the benefits whereof we are partakers in the Lord's Supper?

GRANT, O Father, that those who receive the blessed Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ, coming to those holy mysteries in faith, and love, and true repentance, may be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction, and receive remission of their sins; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O MERCIFUL Lord God, who dost vouchsafe to feed us with that Bread which came down from heaven and giveth life unto the soul; So strengthen and sustain us, we beseech thee, with thy most gracious gifts, that we may resist all temptations, and walk in the way of thy commandments, to the glory of thy holy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellow-

¶ And whensoever the Bishop shall give knowledge for Children to be brought unto him for their Confirmation, the Minister of every Parish shall either bring, or send in writing, with his hand subscribed thereunto, the Names of all such Persons within his Parish, as he shall think fit to be presented to the Bishop to be confirmed.

X. THE ORDER OF CONFIRMATION

RESOLVED: The House of Bishops (the House of Deputies) concurring: That the following change be made in the Order of Confirmation, or Laying on of Hands upon those who are Baptized, and Come to Years of Discretion, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) Amend the first rubric, page 273, so as to read as follows:

¶Upon the day appointed, all that are to be confirmed (the Godfathers and Godmothers being present, when convenient) standing in order before the Bishop, sitting in his chair near the Holy Table, he or some other Minister appointed by him may read the Lesson following; the People standing until the Lord's Prayer.

(2) Transfer the Lesson, page 274, from the place where it now stands, and insert it immediately after the first rubric of the Office.

(3) Omit from the Office the Preface, now standing on page 273 of the Prayer Book.

(4) On page 274, strike out from and including "¶ Then shall the Bishop say, Do ye here," etc., to and including "¶ And every one shall audibly answer, I do"; and insert in lieu thereof the following:

¶ Then shall the Bishop say unto those who are to be confirmed,

DOST thou here, in the presence of God, and of this congregation, promise to obey and follow our Lord Jesus Christ, resisting the temptations of the world, flesh and the devil, and renouncing all that is evil?

Answer: I do.

Bishop. Rehearse the Articles of thy belief.

Answer. I believe in God the Father Almighty, etc.

Bishop. Wilt thou obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

Answer. I will, by God's help.

¶ Here may be sung the Hymn, Veni, Creator Spiritus.

¶ The Bishop shall then confirm them on this wise.

(5) Strike out the first rubric on page 275 and in its place insert the following:

¶ Then all of them in order kneeling, the Bishop

N. I confirm thee In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

(6) In the prayer "Defend, O Lord," etc., italicize the words this and child and omit the words in parentheses, or this thy servant.

(7) After the prayer, "Defend, O Lord," page 275, insert two rubrics as follows:

¶Note, That the Bishop may, at his discretion, insert immediately after the name of the person, the words, I sign thee with the Sign of the Cross and I confirm thee, etc.

¶But Note, That the prayer Defend, O Lord, shall be said by the Bishop for all, being repeated, one or more times, as he thinketh most convenient.

(8) Insert immediately after the last preceding rubric, as follows:

¶Then, those who have received the Laying on of Hands standing up, the Bishop may exhort them in this wise:

BELOVED, Forasmuch as in baptism ye put on Christ and were made living members of his Church, and have received the manifold gifts of the Holy Spirit, ye must walk answerably to your Christian calling. Our Lord, in the night in which he was betrayed, instituted the most comfortable Sacrament of His Body and Blood for the memorial of his death and for the strengthening and refreshing of our souls. If therefore ye would be his servants and do whatsoever he commanded you, ye must not neglect this Sacrament, but must come to the Holy Communion with thankfulness, repentance, faith, and charity, that so ye may do his will and grow in grace unto your life's end.

(9) Transpose the third rubric on page 275 and place it below "Let us pray" and make it read as follows:—

¶ Then shall the Bishop say the Lord's Prayer, the people kneeling and repeating it after him.

(10) Strike out the fourth rubric on page 275 and insert

¶ Then shall the Bishop say:

(5) Amend the last rubric on page 278 by substituting the word "may" for the word "shall."

¶The Priest standing at the Holy Table, there shall be said this Psalm.

God be merciful unto us, and bless us: etc.

¶Or this.

Beati omnes. Psalm 128.

Blessed are all they that fear the Lord: etc.

¶The Psalm ended, and the Man and the Woman kneeling before the Holy Table, the Priest standing at the Table, and turning towards them, shall say such of the prayers following as he may select.

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUR Father, Who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Minister. O Lord, save thy servant, and thy handmaid:
Answer. Who put their trust in thee.
Minister. O Lord, send them help from thy holy place:
Answer. And evermore defend them.
Minister. Be unto them a tower of strength:
Answer. From the face of their enemy.
Minister. Lord, hear our prayer:
Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

O GOD of our fathers, Almighty Lord, look mercifully upon these thy servants, and bless them; that obeying thy will, and continuing in safety under thy protection, they may abide in thy love so long as they both shall live; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, by whose gracious blessing all our joys are hallowed; Grant that these thy servants who have promised to love and cherish each other in the bond of matrimony may always abide in thy love, and so advance in the knowledge of the truth that they may be devoted to thee with their whole heart, and may please thee both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O GOD, who hast consecrated the state of matrimony to such an excellent mystery, that in it is signified and represented the spiritual marriage and unity betwixt Christ and his Church; Look mercifully upon these thy servants, that they may love, honour, and cherish one another, and so live together in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their home may be a haven of blessing and of peace; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

THE Almighty and Merciful Lord bless and sanctify you, and pour upon you the fulness of his grace; that ye may please him both in body and soul, and live together in holy love unto your life's end. Amen.

(1) That in the prayer at the end of the Office, line 6 (page 304 of the Prayer Book) the petition be amended, so that it will read:

"Grant, we beseech thee, most merciful Father, that she, through thy help, may faithfully live according to thy will in this life, and also may be," etc.

XIII. VISITATION OF THE SICK

RESOLVED: The House of Bishops (the House of Deputies) concurring: That the Order for the Visitation of the Sick be amended to read as follows, and that the Order, as amended, be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

The Order for The Visitation of the Sick

¶The following service, or any part thereof, may be used at the discretion of the Minister.

¶When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish; who, coming into the sick person's presence, shall say,

Peace be to this house, and all that dwell in it.

¶After which he shall say the Antiphon following, and, according to his discretion, one of the Penitential Psalms (6, 32, 38, 51, 102, 130, 143).

Antiphon: Remember not, Lord, our iniquities, nor the iniquities of our fore-fathers.

¶Then the Minister shall say,

Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Minister. O Lord, save thy servant;
Answer. Who putteth his trust in thee.
Minister. Send him help from thy holy place;
Answer. And evermore mightily defend him.
Minister. Let the enemy have no advantage of him;
Answer. Nor the wicked approach to hurt him.
Minister. Be unto him, O Lord, a strong tower;
Answer. From the face of his enemy.
Minister. O Lord, hear our prayer.
Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

O LORD, look down from heaven, behold, visit, and relieve this thy servant. Look upon him with the eyes of thy mercy, give him comfort and sure confidence in thee, defend him in all danger, and keep him in perpetual peace and safety; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then may the Minister say the Antiphon and Psalm following with the Collect, or such of the subsequent Psalms and Collects as he shall see fit.

Antiphon: I did call upon the LORD with my voice: and he heard me out of his holy hill.

PSALM 3. Domine, quid multiplicati?

LORD, how are they increased that trouble me: many are they that rise against me. Many one there be that say of my soul: There is no help for him in his God.

But thou, O LORD, art my defender: thou art my worship, and the lifter up of my head.

I did call upon the LORD with my voice: and he heard me out of his holy hill.

I laid me down and slept, and rose up again: for the LORD sustained me.

Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: and thy blessing is upon thy people.

HEAR us, almighty and most merciful God and Saviour; extend thy accustomed goodness to this thy servant who is grieved with sickness. Visit him, O Lord, as thou didst visit the Centurion's servant; and so restore him to his former health that he may give thanks unto thee in thy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Antiphon: I will go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladness.

PSALM 43. Judica me Deus.

GIVE sentence with me, O God, and defend my cause against the ungodly people: O deliver me from the deceitful and wicked man.

For thou art the God of my strength; why hast thou put me from thee: and why go I so heavily, while the enemy oppresseth me?

O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

And that I may go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladness: and upon the harp will I give thanks unto thee, O God, my God.

Why art thou so heavy, O my soul: and why art thou so disquieted within me?

O put thy trust in God: for I will yet give him thanks, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

SANCTIFY, we beseech thee, O Lord, the sickness of this thy servant; that the sense of his weakness may add strength to his faith, and seriousness to his repentance; and grant that he may dwell with thee in life everlasting; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Antiphon: I have considered the days of old and the years that are past.

PSALM 77. Voce mea ad Dominum.

I WILL cry unto God with my voice: even unto God will I cry with my voice, and he shall hearken unto me.

In the time of my trouble I sought the LORD: my sore ran, and ceased not in the night season; my soul refused comfort.

When I am in heaviness, I will think upon God: when my heart is vexed, I will complain.

Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so feeble that I cannot speak.

I have considered the days of old: and the years that are past.

I call to remembrance my song: and in the night I commune with mine own heart, and search out my spirit.

Will the LORD absent himself for ever: and will he be no more intreated?

Is his mercy clean gone for ever: and is his promise come utterly to an end for evermore?

Hath God forgotten to be gracious: and will he shut up his loving-kindness in displeasure?

And I said, It is mine own infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most Highest.

ASSIST us, we beseech thee, O Lord, in these our prayers, as we call upon thee on behalf of this thy servant; and bestow upon him the help of thy merciful consolation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Antiphon: Though I walk in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh me.

PSALM 138. Confitebor tibi.

I WILL give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: even before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy Name, because of thy loving-kindness and truth: for thou hast magnified thy Name, and thy word, above all things.

When I called upon thee, thou heardest me: and enduedst my soul with much strength.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh me: thou shalt stretch forth thy hand upon the furiousness of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

The LORD shall make good his loving-kindness toward me: yea, thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever; despise not then the works of thine own hands.

O GOD, by whose command the moments of our life run their course; Receive our prayers for this thy servant on whose behalf we implore thy mercy; that our heaviness because of his sickness be turned into joy over his recovery; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Antiphon: The Lord saveth thy life from destruction and crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness.

PSALM 103. Benedic, anima mea.

PRAISE the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, praise his holy Name.

Praise the LORD, O my soul: and forget not all his benefits:

Who forgiveth all thy sin: and healeth all thine infirmities;

Who saveth thy life from destruction: and crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness.

O praise the LORD, ye angels of his, ye that excel in strength: ye that fulfil his commandment, and hearken unto the voice of his words.

O praise the LORD, all ye his hosts: ye servants of his that do his pleasure.

O speak good of the LORD, all ye works of his, in all places of his dominion: praise thou the LORD, O my soul.

ACCEPT, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, the devout praise of thy humble servant, and grant him an abiding sense of thy loving-kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶Adding this.

O SAVIOUR of the world, who by thy Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us; Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

¶The following Psalms are suitable and, at the discretion of the Minister, may be substituted for any of those given above: 20, 27, 42, 91, 121, 146.

¶As occasion demands, the Minister shall address the sick person on the meaning and use of the time of sickness, and the opportunity it affords for spiritual profit.

¶Here may the Minister inquire of the sick person as to whether he repent him truly of his sins, and be in charity with all the world; exhorting him to forgive, from the bottom of his heart, all persons that have offended him, and if he hath offended any other, to ask them forgiveness; and where he hath done injury or wrong to any man, that he make amends to the uttermost of his power.

¶Then shall the sick person be moved to make a special confession of his sins, if he feel his conscience troubled with any matter; after which confession, the Minister shall assure him of God's mercy and forgiveness.

¶Then shall the Minister say,

THE Almighty Lord, who is a most strong tower to all those who put their trust in him, to whom all things in heaven, in earth, and under the earth, do bow and obey, Be now and evermore thy defence; and make thee know and feel, that there is none other Name under heaven given to man, in whom, and through whom, thou mayest receive health and salvation, but only the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶Here the Minister may use any part of the service of this Book, which, in his discretion, he shall think convenient to the occasion; and after that shall say,

UNTO God's gracious mercy and protection we commit thee. The LORD bless thee, and keep thee. The LORD make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee. The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

Prayers which may be said with the foregoing Service, or any part thereof, at the discretion of the Minister.

A Prayer for Recovery.

O GOD of heavenly powers, who, by the might of thy command, drivest away from men's bodies all sickness and all infirmity; Be present in thy goodness with this thy servant, that his weakness may be banished and his strength recalled; that his health being thereupon restored, he may bless thy holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for Healing.

O ALMIGHTY God, who art the giver of all health, and the aid of them that turn to thee for succour; We entreat thy strength and goodness in behalf of this thy servant, that he may be healed of his infirmities, to thine honour and glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Thanksgiving for the Beginning of a Recovery.

O MOST mighty and merciful God, fulfil, we beseech thee, the work of healing which thou hast so graciously begun, and grant that thy servant, being restored to health, may live to show forth thy praise; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

A Prayer for a sick Person, when there appeareth but small hope of recovery.

O FATHER of mercies, and God of all comfort, our only help in time of need; We fly unto thee for succour in behalf of this thy servant, here lying in great weakness of body. Look graciously upon him, O Lord; and the more the outward man decayeth, strengthen him, we beseech thee, so much the more continually with thy grace and Holy Spirit in the inner man. Give him unfeigned repentance for all the errors of his life past, and stedfast faith in thy Son Jesus; that his sins may be done away by thy mercy, and his pardon sealed in heaven; through the same thy Son, our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A Prayer for the Despondent.

COMFORT, we beseech thee, most gracious God, this thy servant, cast down and faint of heart amidst the sorrows and difficulties of the world; and grant that by the power of thy Holy Spirit he may be enabled to go upon his way rejoicing, and give thee continual thanks for thy sustaining providence; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer which may be said by the Minister in behalf of all present at the Visitation.

O GOD, whose days are without end, and whose mercies cannot be numbered; Make us, we beseech thee, deeply sensible of the shortness and uncertainty of human life; and let thy Holy Spirit lead us in holiness and righteousness, all the days of our lives: that, when we shall have served thee in our generation, we may be gathered unto our fathers, having the testimony of a good conscience; in the communion of the Catholic Church; in the confidence of a certain faith; in the comfort of a reasonable, religious, and holy hope; in favour with thee our God, and in perfect charity with the world. All which we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Litany for the Dying.

O God the Father;
Have mercy upon the soul of thy servant.
O God the Son;
Have mercy upon the soul of thy servant.
O God the Holy Ghost;
Have mercy upon the soul of thy servant.
O Holy Trinity, One God;
Have mercy upon the soul of thy servant.
From all evil, from all sin, from all tribulation;
Good Lord, deliver him.

By thy holy Incarnation, by thy Cross and Passion, by thy precious Death and Burial;

Good Lord, deliver him.

By thy glorious Resurrection and Ascension, by the coming of the Holy Ghost;

Good Lord, deliver him.

We sinners do beseech thee to hear us, O Lord God; That it may please thee to deliver the soul of thy servant from the power of the evil one, and from everlasting death;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee mercifully to pardon all his sins;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to grant him a place of refreshment and everlasting blessedness;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give him joy and gladness in thy kingdom, with thy saints in light;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to vouchsafe him the blessed vision of thy glorious beauty;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

O Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world;

Have mercy upon him.

O Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world;

Have mercy upon him.

O Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world;

Grant him thy peace.

Lord have mercy upon him.

Christ have mercy upon him.

Lord have mercy upon him.

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Let us pray.

O SOVEREIGN Lord, who desirest not the death of a sinner; We beseech thee to loose the spirit of this thy servant from every bond and set him free from all evil, that he may rest with all thy saints in the eternal habitations; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

An Absolution to be said by the Priest.

MAY the Almighty and Merciful Lord grant thee pardon and remission of all thy sins, and the grace and comfort of the Holy Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Commendation.

DEPART, O Christian soul, out of this world, in the Name of God the Father Almighty who created thee, in the Name of Jesus Christ who redeemed thee, in the Name of the Holy Ghost who sanctifieth thee. May thy rest be this day in peace, and thy dwelling place in the Paradise of God.

A Commendatory Prayer when the Soul is Departed.

INTO thy hands, O merciful Saviour, we commend the soul of thy servant, now departed from the body. Acknowledge, we humbly beseech thee, a sheep of thine own fold, a lamb of thine own flock, a sinner of thine own redeeming. Receive him into the arms of thy mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious estate of thy chosen saints in heaven.

A Commendatory Prayer for a sick Person at the point of departure.

O ALMIGHTY God, with whom do live the spirits of just men made perfect, after they are delivered from their earthly prisons; We humbly commend the soul of this thy servant, our dear brother, into thy hands, as into the hands of a faithful Creator, and most merciful Saviour; beseeching thee, that it may be precious in thy sight. Wash it, we pray thee, in the blood of that immaculate Lamb, that was slain to take away the sins of the world; that whatsoever defilements it may have contracted through the lusts of the flesh, or the wiles of Satan, being purged and done away, it may be presented pure and without spot before thee; through the merits of Jesus Christ thine only Son our Lord. Amen.

Following the teaching and practice of our Lord and his Apostles, the Church from the beginning hath exercised the Ministry of Healing, always with a prayer of faith, often accompanied with anointing with oil, or with the imposition of hands.

¶When any sick person shall in humble faith desire this ministry, through anointing or laying on of hands, the Minister may use such portion of the foregoing Office as he shall think fit, and the following form:

O BLESSED Redeemer, relieve, we beseech thee, by thy indwelling power, the distress of this thy servant; release him from sin, and drive away all pain of soul and body, that being restored to soundness of health, he may offer thee praise and thanksgiving, Who livest, and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

I anoint thee with oil [lay my hand upon thee], in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, beseeching the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all thy pain and sickness of body being put to flight, the blessing of health may be restored to thee.

XIV. THE COMMUNION OF THE SICK

RESOLVED: The House of Bishops (the House of Deputies) concurring: That the following change be made in the Communion of the Sick, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) In the second sentence of the first rubric on page 292 of the Prayer Book, omit the words in parentheses, "which shall be two at the least."

(2) After the Gospel on page 293, insert the following:

¶Or the following Collect, Epistle, and Gospel may be used.

The Collect.

O LORD, Holy Father, by whose loving-kindness our souls and bodies are renewed; Mercifully regard this thy servant, that, every cause of sickness being removed, he may be restored to soundness of health; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 St. John v. 13.

THESE things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: and if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

The Gospel. St. John vi. 47.

JESUS said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. I am that bread of life. Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

(3) Amend the third rubric, page 293, so that it shall read as follows:

¶When circumstances render it expedient to shorten the service, the following form shall suffice: The Confession and the Absolution;

Lift up your hearts, etc., through the Sanctus; The Prayer of Consecretion, ending with these words, partakers of his most blessed Body and Blood; The Communion; The Lord's Prayer; The Blessing.

(4) Insert the following rubric immediately after the last preceding rubric.

¶When, by reason of contagious sickness or other compelling circumstance, the Holy Communion is administered to the sick with the use of consecrated Bread and Wine reserved at the Communion in the Church, the following form shall suffice: The Confession and the Absolution; The Prayer of Humble Access; The Communion; The Lord's Prayer; The Blessing.

(5) Omit the last three rubrics on page 293.

XV. THE ORDER FOR THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD

RESOLVED: The House of Bishops (the House of Deputies) concurring: That the following change be made in the Order for the Burial of the Dead, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) Transfer the first rubric on page 294 to the end of the Office, omitting from it the word "ensuing," and changing "the" to "this."

(2) In the second rubric, page 294, change the word "Corpse" to "Body;" and strike out the words "or sing," and the words "at the entrance of the Churchyard."

(3) Omit the references to chapter and verse at the end of the opening Anthems.

(4) Insert after the first Sentence, page 294, the following:

LET not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you, that where I am there ye may be also. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

(5) In the Sentence "I know that my redeemer liveth," page 294, omit the words "and though after my skin . . . shall I see God"; and at the end, substitute for the word another, the words as a stranger, so that it shall read:

"I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not as a stranger."

(6) Amend the rubric before the Selections from the Psalms, page 294, so that it shall read as follows:

¶After they are come into the Church, shall be said one or more of the following Selections taken from the Psalms. The Gloria Patri may be omitted except at the end of the whole portion or selection from the Psalter.

(7) Prefix to the first Selection, page 294, the title, Psalm 39. Dixi, Custodiam; and to the second Selection, page 295, the title, Psalm 90. Domine, refugium.

(8) Strike out the Gloria Patri at the end of the first and second Selections.

(9) Insert the following selections from the Psalms.

PSALM 27. Dominus illuminatio.

THE LORD is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear: the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?

One thing have I desired of the LORD, which I will require: even that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the LORD, and to visit his temple.

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his tabernacle: yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me, and set me up upon a rock of stone.

And now shall he lift up mine head: above mine enemies round about me.

Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation, with great gladness: I will sing and speak praises unto the LORD.

Hearken unto my voice, O LORD, when I cry unto thee: have mercy upon me, and hear me.

My heart hath talked of thee, Seek ye my face: Thy face, LORD, will I seek.

O hide not thou thy face from me: nor cast thy servant away in displeasure.

Thou hast been my succour: leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

I should utterly have fainted: but that I believe verily to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

O tarry thou the LORD's leisure: be strong, and he shall comfort thine heart; and put thou thy trust in the LORD.

PSALM 46. Deus noster refugium.

GOD is our hope and strength: a very present help in trouble.

Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be moved: and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea;

Though the waters thereof rage and swell: and though the mountains shake at the tempest of the same.

The rivers of the flood thereof shall make glad the city of God: the holy place of the tabernacle of the Most Highest.

God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed: God shall help her, and that right early.

Be still then, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.

The LORD of hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our refuge.

PSALM 121. Levavi oculos.

I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills: from whence cometh my help.

My help cometh even from the LORD: who hath made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: and he that keepeth thee will not sleep.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The LORD himself is thy keeper: the LORD is thy defence upon thy right hand;

So that the sun shall not burn thee by day: neither the moon by night.

The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in: from this time forth for evermore.

PSALM 130. De profundis.

OUT of the deep have I called unto thee, O LORD: Lord, hear my voice.

O let thine ears consider well: the voice of my complaint.

If thou, LORD, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it?

For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared.

I look for the LORD; my soul doth wait for him: in his word is my trust.

My soul fleeth unto the Lord: before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

O Israel, trust in the LORD, for with the LORD there is mercy: and with him is plenteous redemption.

And he shall redeem Israel: from all his sins.

(10) Omit from the Lesson from 1 Cor. xv. vs. 29–34, and divide what remains into paragraphs as follows:

(a) vv. 20–28, to "that God may be all in all."

(b) 35–49, to "the image of the heavenly."

(c) 50, to the end.

(11) Insert an alternate lesson immediately after the lesson from 1 Cor. xv, page 298, as follows:

Or this.

Rom. viii. 14.

AS many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

(12) Immediately after the Lesson, page 298 of the Prayer Book, add a new section for the close of the Office in Church, as follows:

¶Here the Order following may be used: or else at the discretion of the Minister a Hymn or Anthem may be sung, and the Creed, the Lord's Prayer and such fitting Prayers as are elsewhere provided in this Book may be added, ending with the Blessing.

Benedictus.

BLESSED be the Lord God of Israel: for he hath visited and redeemed his people;

And hath raised up a mighty salvation for us: in the house of his servant David;

As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets: which have been since the world began;

That we should be saved from our enemies: and from the hand of all that hate us.

Through the tender mercy of our God: whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us;

To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

¶Then shall be said the Apostles' Creed by the Minister and people standing:

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary: Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried: He descended into hell; The third day he rose again from the dead: He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty: From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost: The holy Catholic Church; The Communion of Saints: The Forgiveness of sins: The Resurrection of the body: And the Life everlasting. Amen.

¶And after that these prayers following, the Minister first pronouncing:

The Lord be with you.
And with thy Spirit.
Let us pray.
Lord have mercy upon us.
Christ have mercy upon us.
Lord have mercy upon us.

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Minister. Enter not into judgment with thy servant, O Lord;

Answer. For in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

Minister. Call to remembrance, O Lord, thy tender mercies;

Answer. And thy loving-kindnesses which have been ever of old.

Minister. I believe verily to see the goodness of the Lord,

Answer. In the land of the living.

Minister. Lord, hear our prayer,

Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

REMEMBER thy servant, O Lord, according to the favor which thou bearest unto thy people, and grant that increasing in knowledge and love of thee, he may go from strength to strength, in the life of perfect service in thy heavenly kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

¶Other fitting prayers provided elsewhere in this Book may here be added.

¶Then the Minister shall add this Blessing.

UNTO God's gracious mercy and protection we commit you. The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. The Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

(13) In the rubric "When they come to the Grave," page 298, substitute "Body" for "Corpse."

(14) After the Anthem "Man, that is born," page 298, insert the following rubric and Anthem:

¶Or this.

ALL that the Father giveth me shall come to me: and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

He that raised up Jesus from the dead: will also quicken your mortal bodies by the spirit which dwelleth in you.

Wherefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

Thou shalt show me the path of life; in thy presence is the fulness of joy: and at thy right hand there is pleasure for evermore.

(15) Strike out from the form of the Committal, page 299, the words from and including "Forasmuch" to and including "second coming," and insert in their place the following:

UNTO Almighty God we commend the soul of our deceased brother, and we commit his body to the ground; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust; in sure and certain hope of the Resurrection unto eternal life, through our Lord Jesus Christ, at whose coming . . .

(16) After the first rubric on page 300, insert the following:

The Lord be with you.
Answer: And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

(17) Amend the rubric after the Lord's Prayer, page 300, so as to read as follows:

¶Then the Minister shall say one or more of the following Prayers, at his discretion.

(18) After the rubric "Then the Minister shall say," page 300, insert the following Prayer:

O GOD, whose mercies are unnumbered; Accept our prayers on behalf of the soul of thy servant departed, and grant him an entrance into the land of light and joy in the fellowship of thy saints; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(19) Substitute for "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ," page 301, the following:

THE God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant; Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight; through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

(20) After the title Additional Prayers, page 301, insert the following Prayer:

O ALMIGHTY God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, who by a voice from heaven didst proclaim, Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; Multiply, we beseech thee, to those who rest in Jesus the manifold blessings of thy love, that the good work which thou didst begin in them may be perfected unto the day of Jesus Christ. And of thy mercy, O heavenly Father, vouchsafe that we who now serve thee here on earth, may at last, together with them, be found meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light; for the sake of the same, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(21) Immediately before the rubric "Inasmuch," page 302, insert the following Prayer:

For the Blessing of a Grave.

O GOD, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, vouchsafe, we beseech thee, to bless this grave in which we are about to lay the body of thy servant; through the same thy blessed Son, who is the resurrection and the life, and who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

(22) In the Sentence of Committal for Burial at Sea, page 302, strike out the words from and including "We therefore commit" to and including "second coming," and insert in their place the following:

UNTO Almighty God we commend the soul of our deceased brother, and we commit his body to the deep; in sure and certain hope of the Resurrection unto eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord, at whose coming . . .

(23) That at the end of the foregoing Office there be added the following Order for the Burial of a Child to be headed

AT THE BURIAL OF A CHILD

¶The Minister, meeting the Body, and going before it, either into the Church or towards the Grave, shall say,

I AM the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die.

Jesus called them unto him and said, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom.

¶When they are come into the Church, shall be said the following Psalms; and at the end of each Psalm shall be said the Gloria Patri;

Psalm 23. Dominus regit me.

THE Lord is my shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing.

He shall feed me in a green pasture: and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

He shall convert my soul: and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff comfort me.

Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me: thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.

But thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Psalm 121. Levavi oculos.

I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills: from whence cometh my help.

My help cometh even from the Lord: who hath made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: and he that keepeth thee will not sleep.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord himself is thy keeper: the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand;

So that the sun shall not burn thee by day: neither the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in: from this time forth for evermore.

¶ Then shall follow the Lesson: St. Matt. xviii. 1.

AT the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them, and said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me. Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

¶Here may be sung a Hymn or an Anthem; then the Minister may say the following prayers, or such other fitting prayers as are elsewhere provided in this book.

¶Then shall the Minister say:

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.
Let us pray.
Lord have mercy upon us.
Christ have mercy upon us.
Lord have mercy upon us.

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Minister. Blessed are the pure in heart;
Answer. For they shall see God.
Minister. Blessed be the name of the Lord,
Answer. Henceforth world without end.
Minister. Lord, hear our prayer,
Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

O MERCIFUL Father, whose face the angels of thy little ones do always behold in heaven; Grant us stedfastly to believe that this thy child hath been taken into the safe keeping of thine eternal love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and merciful Father, who dost grant to little children an abundant entrance into thy kingdom; Grant us grace so to conform our lives to their innocency and perfect faith, that at length, united with them, we may stand in thy presence in fulness of joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

¶When they are come to the grave shall be said or sung:

Jesus saith to his disciples, Ye now therefore have sorrow, but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice and your joy no man taketh from you.

¶While the earth shall be cast upon the body, the Minister shall say:

In sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ, we commit the body of this child to the ground. The Lord bless him and keep him, the Lord make his face to shine upon him and be gracious unto him, the Lord lift up his countenance upon him, and give him peace, both now and ever more.

¶Then shall be said or sung:

THEREFORE are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

¶Then shall the Minister say:

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

O GOD, whose most dear Son did take little children into his arms and bless them; Give us grace, we beseech thee, to entrust the soul of this child to thy never-failing care and love, and bring us all to thy heavenly kingdom; through the same thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, Father of mercies and giver of all comfort, deal graciously, we pray thee, with all those who mourn, that casting every care on thee, they may know the consolation of thy love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

May Almighty God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, bless you and keep you now and for evermore. Amen.

¶Inasmuch as it may sometimes be expedient to say under shelter of the Church the whole of the service appointed to be said at the Grave, the same is hereby allowed, for weighty cause.

(3) In place of the present breath mark or musical notation, the colon, substitute throughout the Psalter an asterisk in the middle of the line, and restore in that place the punctuation of the Psalter as it appeared in the Prayer Book before the adoption of the colon in 1892.

(4) Print at the top of the page throughout the Psalter, in addition to the day of the month, the Psalm number; that is, the number of the Psalm which begins on that page. Or, in case of two Psalms on a page, the number of the first occurring Psalm which begins or is contained on that page.

(5) Mark the five books of which the Psalter is composed by printing at the head of each book, Book I, Book II, etc., and by leaving a space before the doxology which marks the end of each book.

(6) Amend the text of the Psalter in the particulars herewith submitted, as follows: (See Appendix.)

PSALM 69. THE PSALTER. DAY 13

18 And hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in trouble: * O haste thee, and hear me.

19 Draw nigh unto my soul, and save it; * O deliver me, because of mine enemies.

20 Thou hast known my reproof, my shame, and my dishonour: * mine adversaries are all in thy sight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart; I am full of heaviness: * I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me.

22 They gave me gall to eat; * and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

23 Let their table be made a snare to take themselves withal; * and let the things that should have been for their wealth be unto them an occasion of falling.

24 Let their eyes be blinded, that they see not; * and ever bow thou down their backs.

25 Pour out thine indignation upon them, * and let thy wrathful displeasure take hold of them.

26 Let their habitation be void, * and no man to dwell in their tents.

27 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; * and they talk how they may vex them whom thou hast wounded.

28 Let them fall from one wickedness to another, * and not come into thy righteousness.

29 Let them be wiped out of the book of the living, * and not be written among the righteous.

30 As for me, when I am poor and in heaviness, * thy help, O God, shall lift me up.

31 I will praise the Name of God with a song, * and magnify it with thanksgiving.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

XXI. ADMISSION OF DEACONESSES

RESOLVED: The House of Bishops (the House of Deputies) concurring: That an Office for the Admission of Deaconesses be provided as follows, to be inserted immediately after the Office of Institution of Ministers, and that the proposed Office be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

A Form of Admission to the Office of Deaconess.

¶All things being in readiness, a Priest shall present to the Bishop sitting in his chair near to the Holy Table, such as are to be admitted as Deaconesses, saying,

REVEREND Father in God, I present unto you these women (or this woman), to be admitted to the office and work of Deaconess.

The Bishop.

DECLARE, we pray you, unto those who are here gathered what the office and work of a Deaconess are.

¶ Then shall the Priest, addressing the People, say:

DEARLY beloved, it is written in the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, that while the Lord Jesus was going about through cities and villages, preaching and showing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God, there were women not a few which ministered unto him of their substance. Likewise, after he was crucified (as the same Evangelist hath elsewhere told us), the women which came with him from Galilee were emboldened to follow after them that carried his body to the burial, and to prepare spices and ointments. Also that it is agreeable to the mind of Christ that women should do him service by offices of loving kindness, we gather from St. Paul, who saith to the Philippians, Help those women which laboured with me in the Gospel. And who also commendeth unto the Romans, one Phebe, a Deaconess of the Church which was at Cenchrea.

Touching the duty of women set apart to this office and ministry, the Canons of the Church affirm that it is to assist the Minister in the care of the poor and sick, in the religious training of the young and others, and in the work of moral reformation.

That they may be duly appointed to such service, have these women come hither.

¶Then shall the Bishop say as followeth:

BELOVED, we have good confidence that they who are now presented to be admitted to the office of Deaconess are competent thereto, for it hath been so certified unto us, as the Canons require, by them whose word we trust. Nevertheless, if there be any who can allege aught on account of which it is inexpedient that any of these persons be so admitted, let protest be now made openly and before all men.

¶If no good reason be alleged by any why the service should not proceed, then the Bishop, commending to the prayers of the congregation such as shall be found meet, shall say:

Let thy merciful kindness, O Lord, be upon us.

Answer. Like as we do put our trust in thee.

¶Then, all kneeling down, the Bishop shall say:

Unto thee lift we up our eyes;

Answer. O thou that dwellest in the heavens.

Bishop. As the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters; and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress;

Answer. Even so our eyes wait upon thee, O Lord; until thou have mercy upon us.

Bishop. O Lord, have mercy upon us.

Answer. Have mercy upon us.

Bishop. O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us;

Answer. As our trust is in thee.

The Bishop.

Let us pray.

O ETERNAL God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ; Look mercifully, we beseech thee, upon these thy servants, about to be admitted to the office and work of Deaconess; and grant that in singleness of purpose and with a willing mind they may worthily accomplish the task committed to them, to the glory of thy Name, and the benefit of thy holy Church; through the same thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Then, the people being seated, shall the Bishop examine every one of those who are to be admitted, in the presence of the people, after this manner following:

The Bishop.

HAVE you well considered your purpose to serve God in this office and ministry?

Answer. I have so considered it.

The Bishop.

WILL you endeavour faithfully to fulfil the duties of the same?

Answer. I will.

The Bishop.

WILL you diligently ask of God the grace to enable you to persevere in this endeavour?

Answer. I will.

The Bishop.

WILL you be diligent in prayer and in reading of the Holy Scripture, and in such studies as help to the knowledge and teaching of the same?

Answer. I will so do by the help of the Lord.

The Bishop.

WILL you reverently obey your Bishop, and other chief Ministers, who may have the charge and government over you; following with a glad mind and will their godly admonitions?

Answer. I will endeavour so to do, the Lord being my helper.

¶Then the Bishop, laying his hands severally upon the head of every one of them kneeling before him, shall say:

NI admit thee to the Office of Deaconess; . in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Bishop.

The Lord be with you.

Answer. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

¶ Then, the people kneeling, the Bishop shall say these Prayers following.

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

ENDUE, O Lord, we beseech Thee, these thy servants, with the meekness and gentleness of Christ. Preserve them alike from faithless fears and from unreasonable desires, that with a steadfast heart and settled purpose they may run the way of thy commandments; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall he add:

O magnify the Lord with me;

Answer: And let us exalt his Name together.

¶ Then, all standing up, shall be said:

Bishop. O give thanks unto the God of Heaven;

Answer. For his mercy endureth for ever.

Bishop. O give thanks unto the Lord of Lords;

Answer. For his mercy endureth for ever.

¶Then shall be sung or said the Hymn called Magnificat, as followeth:

Magnificat. St. Luke i. 46.

MY soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his handmaiden.

For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.

He hath showed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel: as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed, for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

¶If there be a Communion the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel shall be as follows:—

The Collect.

O LORD, without whom our labor is but lost; We humbly beseech thee to prosper all works in thy Church undertaken according to thy holy will; and grant to thy labourers a pure intention, patient faith, sufficient success on earth, and the blessedness of serving thee in heaven; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Rom. xvi. 1.

I COMMEND unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea: That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also. Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my helpers in Christ Jesus: Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles. Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my well beloved Epenetus, who is the firstfruits of Achaia unto Christ.

The Gospel. St. Matt. xxv. 34.

THEN shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: For I was a hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and yet took me in: naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee a hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

¶If there be no Communion, the Bishop shall dismiss them with a Blessing.

For the Spirit of Prayer.

O ALMIGHTY God, from whom cometh the desire to pray, and who pourest out on those who seek it the spirit of supplication; Deliver us when we draw nigh to thee from coldness of heart and wandering of mind, that with stedfast thoughts and kindled affections we may worship thee in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In the Morning.

O GOD the King eternal, who dividest the day from the darkness, and turnest the shadow of death into the morning; Drive far off from us all wrong desires, incline our hearts to keep thy law, and guide our feet into the way of peace; that having done thy will with cheerfulness while it was day, we may, when the night cometh, rejoice to give thee thanks; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, who alone gavest us the breath of life, and alone canst keep alive in us the holy desires thou dost impart; We humbly beseech thee to sanctify all our thoughts and endeavours, that we may neither begin an action without a pure intention nor continue it without thy blessing. And grant that having the eyes of the mind opened to behold things invisible and eternal, we may in heart be inspired by thy wisdom, and in work be upheld by thy strength, and in the end be accepted of thee as thy faithful servants; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

At Night.

O LORD, support us all the day long of this troublous life, until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then of thy mercy grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O GOD, who art the life of mortal men, the light of the faithful, the strength of those who labour, and the repose of the dead; We thank thee for the timely blessings of the day, and humbly ask thy merciful protection all this night. Bring us, we beseech thee, in safety to the morning hours; through him who died for us and rose again, thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Saturday Night.

ACCEPT, O merciful Father, our praise and thanksgiving for all the mercies of the past week and of our past lives. To thee we owe all we are and all we have; keep us, we beseech thee, this night in safety under the shadow of thy wings; and grant that rising from our beds on the Lord's day in health and strength, we may rise with Christ unto newness of life; through the same, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday Morning.

O GOD, who makest us glad with the weekly remembrance of the glorious resurrection of thy son our Lord; Vouchsafe us this day such a blessing through thy worship, that the days which follow it may be spent in thy service; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Quiet Confidence.

O GOD of peace, who hast taught us that in returning and rest we shall be saved, in quietness and in confidence shall be our strength; By the might of thy Spirit lift us, we pray thee, to thy presence, where we may be still and know that thou art God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Guidance.

O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the godly; Grant us, in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what thou wouldest have us to do, that the spirit of wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in thy light we may see light, and in thy straight path may not stumble; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Trustfulness

O MOST loving Father, who hast taught us to give thanks for all things, to dread nothing but the loss of thee and to cast all our care on thee who carest for us; Preserve us from faithless fears and worldly anxieties, and grant that no clouds of this mortal life may hide from us the light of that love which is immortal, and which thou hast manifested unto us in thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Children.

ALMIGHTY God, heavenly Father, who hast bestowed upon us the joy and care of children; Grant us wisdom and strength, so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true, and pure, and lovely, and of good report; following the example of their Lord, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

For the Children to Say.

O LORD Jesus Christ, who hast embraced us thy children with the arms of thy mercy, and made us living members of thy Holy Church; Give us grace, we pray thee, to remain steadfast in faith, obedient to thy word, and constant in prayer; that continuing thy faithful soldiers and servants, we may have power and strength to have victory and to triumph; for thy Name's sake who livest and reignest, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

For the Absent.

O GOD, whose fatherly care reacheth to the uttermost parts of the earth; We humbly beseech thee graciously to behold and bless our absent friends. Defend them from all dangers of soul and body; and grant that both they and we, drawing nearer to thee, may be bound together by thy love in the communion of thy Holy Spirit and in the fellowship of thy saints; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Those We Love

ALMIGHTY God, give us grace to trust to thy never-failing care and love those who are dear to us, for this life and the life to come; knowing that thou art doing for them better things than we can desire or pray for; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Recovery of a Sick Person.

ALMIGHTY and immortal God, giver of life and health; We beseech thee to hear our prayers for thy servant N., for whom we implore thy mercy; that by thy blessing upon him and upon those who minister to him of thy healing gifts, it may please thee to restore to him health of body and of mind, that he may give thanks to thee in thy holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For One about to Undergo an Operation.

ALMIGHTY God our heavenly Father; We beseech thee graciously to comfort thy servant in his suffering, and to bless the means made use of for his cure. Fill his heart with confidence, that though he be sometime afraid, he may yet put his trust in thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For a Sick Child.

O HEAVENLY FATHER, watch with us, we pray thee, over this thy child, and grant that he may be speedily restored to that perfect health, which it is thine alone to give; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For a Birthday.

WATCH over thy child, O Lord, as his days increase; bless and guide him wherever he may be, keeping him unspotted from the world. Strengthen him when he stands; comfort him when discouraged or sorrowful; raise him up if he fall; and grant him thy peace both now and ever more; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For an Anniversary of One Departed.

ALMIGHTY God, we remember this day before thee thy faithful servant, N. and we pray thee that having opened to him the gates of larger life, thou wilt receive him more and more into thy joyful service, that he may win, with thee and thy servants everywhere, the eternal victory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For a Blessing on the Families of the Land.

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who settest the solitary in families; We commend to thy continual care the homes in which thy people dwell. Put far from them, we beseech thee, every root of bitterness, the desire of vain glory and the pride of life. Fill them with faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness. Knit together in constant affection those who, in holy wedlock, have been made one flesh; turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to the fathers; and so enkindle fervent charity among us all that we be evermore kindly affectioned with brotherly love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For all Poor, Homeless, and Neglected Folk.

O GOD, almighty and merciful, who healest those that are broken in heart, and turnest the sadness of the sorrowful to joy; Let thy fatherly goodness be upon all that thou hast made. Especially we beseech thee to remember in pity such as are destitute, homeless, or forgotten of their fellow men. Uplift those who are cast down. Mightily befriend innocent sufferers, and sanctify to them the endurance of their wrongs. Cheer with hope all discouraged and unhappy people, and by thy heavenly grace preserve from falling those whose penury tempteth them to sin; though they be troubled on every side, suffer them not to be distressed; though they be perplexed, save them from despair. Grant this, O Lord, for the love of him, who for our sakes became poor, thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

For Faithfulness in the Use of this World's Goods.

ALMIGHTY God, whose loving hand hath given us all that we possess; Grant us grace that we may honour thee with our substance, and remembering the account which we must one day give, may be faithful stewards of thy bounty; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A General Intercession.

O GOD, at whose word man goeth forth to his work and to his labour until the evening; Be merciful to all whose duties are difficult or burdensome, and comfort them concerning their toil. Shield from bodily accident and harm the workmen at their work. Protect the efforts of sober and honest industry, and suffer not the hire of the labourers to be kept back by fraud. Incline the hearts of employers and of those whom they employ to mutual forbearance, fairness, and good-will. Give the spirit of governance and of a sound mind to all in places of authority. Bless all those who labour in works of mercy or in schools of good learning. Care for all aged persons, and all little children, the sick and the afflicted, and those who travel by land or by sea. Remember all who by reason of weakness are overtasked, or because of poverty are forgotten. Let the sorrowful sighing of the prisoners come before thee; and according to the greatness of thy power preserve thou those that are appointed to die. Give ear unto our prayer, O merciful and gracious Father, for the love of thy dear Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

For All Nations.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who dost govern all things in heaven and earth; Mercifully hear the prayers of thy people, and in all the nations of the world establish thy righteousness and thy peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Grace Before Meat.

BLESS, O Father, thy gifts to our use and us to thy service; for Christ's sake. Amen.

GIVE us grateful hearts, our Father, for all thy mercies, and make us mindful of the wants of others; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OFFICE OF COMPLINE

¶ The Reader shall begin with the Versicle that followeth, both he and all the people kneeling; and after the second Response, silence shall be kept for a while until the Gloria Patri, when all shall stand.

V. Turn us again, O Lord, and quicken us:
R. That thy people may rejoice in thee.
V. O God, make speed to save us.
R. O Lord, make haste to help us.

Silence.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Antiphon. Have mercy upon us, O God.

Cum invocarem. PSALM IV.

HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast set me at liberty when I was in trouble; have mercy upon me, and hearken unto my prayer.

O ye sons of men, how long will ye blaspheme mine honour: and have such pleasure in vanity, and seek after falsehood?

Know this also, that the Lord hath chosen to himself the man that is godly: when I call upon the Lord he will hear me.

Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart, and in your chamber, and be still.

Offer the sacrifice of righteousness: and put your trust in the Lord.

There be many that say: Who will shew us any good?

Lord, lift thou up: the light of thy countenance upon us.

Thou hast put gladness in my heart: since the time that their corn, and wine, and oil increased.

I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou, Lord, only, that makest me dwell in safety.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

In Te, Domine, speravi. PSALM XXXI.

IN thee, O Lord, have I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion; deliver me in thy righteousness.

Bow down thine ear to me: make haste to deliver me.

And be thou my strong rock, and house of defence: that thou mayest save me.

For thou art my strong rock, and my castle: be thou also my guide, and lead me for thy Name's sake.

Draw me out of the net, that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength.

Into thy hands I commend my spirit: for thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, thou God of Truth.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Qui habitat. Psalm xci.

WHOSO dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope, and my stronghold: my God, in him will I trust.

For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night: nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

For the pestilence that walketh in darkness: nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noonday.

A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold: and see the reward of the ungodly.

For thou, Lord, art my hope: thou hast set thine house of defence very high.

There shall no evil happen unto thee: neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

For he shall give his angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him up, because he hath known my Name.

He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and bring him to honour.

With long life will I satisfy him: and show him my salvation.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Ecce nunc. PSALM CXXXIV.

BEHOLD now, praise the Lord: all ye servants of the Lord;

Ye that by night stand in the house of the Lord: even in the courts of the house of our God.

Lift up your hands in the sanctuary: and praise the Lord.

The Lord that made heaven and earth: give thee blessing out of Sion.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Antiphon. Have mercy upon us, O God, and hearken unto our prayer.

THE CHAPTER. Jer. xiv. 9.

Thou, O Lord, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not, O Lord, our God.

To be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
Glory to be the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Antiphon. Save us waking, O Lord, and guard us sleeping, that we may watch with Christ, and may rest in peace.

All Kneeling.

V. Lord, have mercy upon us.
R. Christ, have mercy upon us.
V. Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, etc.

V. I will lay me down in peace.
R. And take my rest.

I believe in God, etc.

V. Let us bless the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

R. Let us praise and exalt him for ever.

V. Blessed art thou, O Lord, in the firmament of heaven.

R. Above all to be praised and glorified for ever.

V. The Almighty and merciful Lord, guard us and give us his blessing.

R. Amen.

¶Then is said the following confession.

WE confess to God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, and before the whole company of heaven, that we have sinned exceedingly in thought, word, and deed, and by omission, through our fault, our own fault, our own grievous fault; wherefore we pray God to have mercy upon us.

¶And those present shall say,

Almighty God, have mercy upon us, and bring us to everlasting life. Amen.

¶If a Priest be present he will add,

The Almighty and merciful Lord, grant you absolution and remission of all your sins, time for true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and comfort of his Holy Spirit. Amen.

V. Wilt thou not turn again and quicken us, O Lord,

R. That thy people may rejoice in thee.

V. Show us thy mercy, O Lord,

R. And grant us thy salvation.

V. Vouchsafe, O Lord,

R. To keep us this night without sin.

V. O Lord, have mercy upon us,

R. Have mercy upon us.

V. O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us,

R. As our trust is in thee.

V. Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee.

R. Have mercy upon me and hear me.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

V. May the souls of the faithful, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

R. Amen.

V. Bless we the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

III.

AN OFFICE FOR MISSIONS.

¶ The office may begin by the singing of a Hymn, after which shall be said The Antiphon, as follows:

Minister and People. The Lord, even the most mighty God, hath spoken, and called the world from the rising up of the sun unto the going down thereof.

Minister. And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldst be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel; I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people; but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

And nations shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

Minister and People. The Lord, even the most mighty God, hath spoken: From the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my Name shall be great among the Gentiles.

V. Show thy servants thy work;
R. And their children thy glory.
V. Let thy merciful kindness, O Lord, be upon us;
R. As we do put our trust in Thee.
V. Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us,
R. But unto thy Name give the praise.

¶ Then shall be said the following Cento from the Gospels.

When he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them,

Because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;

Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep,

And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold:

Them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one flock, and one shepherd.

If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

Go ye, therefore, and make disciples of all nations; and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

V. Our help is in the Name of the Lord.
R. Who hath made heaven and earth.
V. Lord, hear our prayer.
R. And let our cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified; Receive our supplications and prayers, which we offer before thee for all estates of men in thy Holy Church, that every member of the same, in his vocation and ministry, may truly and godly serve thee; through our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given to thy dear Son the heathen for an inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for a possession; Bless, we beseech thee, the missionary work of thy Holy Church in all parts of the world. Have pity upon the people who are still calling upon gods that cannot save, and so touch their hearts and waken their consciences and rule their wills, that they may turn to thee, the living God, who wouldest have all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. Raise up among them, we pray thee, prophets and teachers of their own blood, men full of wisdom and of the Holy Ghost. Gather in the souls destitute of help. Set free the prisoners of darkness. Visit with thy compassion the unthankful and impure. Forgive the evil-doers who know not what they do. And so assemble, according to thy promise, before thy Throne and before the Lamb, all nations and kindreds and peoples and tongues. All which we ask for the sake of thy only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

O ALMIGHTY God, who hast in thy Holy Church committed to the hands of men the ministry of reconciliation, to gather together a great flock in all parts of the world, to the eternal praise of thy Holy Name; We humbly beseech thee that thou wilt put it in the hearts of many faithful men to seek this sacred ministry, appointed for the salvation of mankind; that so thy church may rejoice in a due supply of true and faithful pastors, and the bounds of thy blessed Kingdom may be enlarged; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Here shall follow such special intercessions as the Minister may appoint; after which shall be said by all present, after the Minister, the Thanksgiving, as follows:

ALMIGHTY God, whose compassions fail not, and whose lovingkindness reacheth unto the world's end; We give thee humble thanks for opening heathen lands to the light of thy truth; for making paths in the deep waters and highways in the desert; and for planting thy Church in all the earth. Fill our hearts, we beseech thee, with gratitude for this thy goodness, that henceforth we may labour more abundantly for the advancement of thy kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God, by whose command the order of all time runs its course; Forgive, we beseech thee, the impatience of our unbelief; make perfect that which is lacking in our faith; and, while we tarry thy fulfilment of the ancient promises, grant us to have a good hope because of thy Word; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Almighty and merciful God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, bless and preserve us, now and for evermore. Amen.

IV.

A LITANY.

PARDON, O Lord, our offences, and the offences of our forefathers. Thou hast shown us thy ways and we have forsaken thee; thou hast brought us to great honour, and we weary of thy service; yet spare us, good Lord, and all our nation, and give us grace and time for the amendment of our lives.

Spare us, good Lord.

From idleness and wandering thoughts, from feeble purpose and from low ideals, from wilful blindness to thy presence, and deafness to thy call,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From selfish love of money and of ease, from fear of discomfort and of pain, and from all sloth and cowardice,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From evil thoughts and conversation, from insincerity and dishonesty in word or work, from the temptations that most easily beset us, and from the sin of leading others into wrong,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From distrust, suspicion and contempt, from prejudice and want of sympathy with any of thy children, from all unholy strife, and from whatsoever in us hinders thy work on earth,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From depression, from over-anxiety for ourselves or for others, and from want of faith in thee and in thy hope for us, for our country and for all the world,

Good Lord, deliver us.

We sinners do beseech thee to hear us, good Lord, and that it may please thee to bless the President of the United States, and all who bear authority in this land, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety may be established among us for all generations,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to send thy grace upon all Ministers of thy word, and upon those committed to their charge, that they may grow in strength and purity, in faith and godliness,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to defend our land from war and pestilence, from the snares of wealth, and the bitterness of poverty, and from sudden disaster and calamity,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give us strength sufficient for this day's toil, to lend us courage in difficulty, guidance in perplexity, and a sense of thy love in our enjoyment and success,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to assist with thy grace those who are labouring to draw all nations unto thee, and to build up thy Church in all the world,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to show to each what work thou hast prepared for him to do, and that he may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to visit with thy blessing all who are near and dear to us, all who pray for us, and all who desire or need our prayers,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to defend us all with thy heavenly grace, that we may continue thy faithful soldiers and servants unto our life's end,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

Let us thank God for his favour and goodness towards us:—

O GOD of Love, we yield thee thanks for whatsoever thou hast given us richly to enjoy, for health and vigour, for the love and care of home, for joys of friendship, and for every good gift of happiness and strength. We praise thee for all thy servants who by their example and encouragement have helped us on our way, and for every vision of thyself which thou hast ever given us in sacrament or prayer; and we humbly beseech thee that all these thy benefits we may use in thy service and to the glory of thy holy Name; through Jesus Christ, thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

SATISFY us with thy mercy, O Lord, from day to day, that in fulness of joy we may walk before thee with a perfect heart; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

V.

The People's Book of Worship

A Study of the Book of Common Prayer

By JOHN WALLACE SUTER
and
CHARLES MORRIS ADDISON

Cloth, 12mo

This new volume in the "Church Principles for Lay People" series, is to be regarded not as a book at all but as a library of books bound together to make one volume, thus leading us to apprehend its riches and to discover its unrealized treasures of helpfulness for the worshipper, and to be used with intelligence and freedom to the soul's health. It discusses:

I. The Meaning of Worship

Worship is the attitude and act of man when he realizes how much God is worth.

II. The Book Itself

It is five books in one.

III. The Fundamental Principles

The interplay of the two principles of Growth and Comprehension is the guarantee of the book's endurance.

IV. The Three Working Principles

By faithful and intelligent adherence to these three Working Principles the people may come to a truer and more vital using of its services in their worship.

V. Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer

By five great steps of progress constituting an unfaltering rightness of order the service proceeds in accordance with what is as it were a natural history of worship.

VI. The Litany

It is this combination of the two primal instincts of prayer which make it so great an instrument of worship.

VII. The Holy Communion

The three parts of the service form a series of approaches, each ordered in a corresponding manner with every other in the method of its inauguration and climax. No part is detachable or inconsequential.

VIII. The Spirit of the Book and Its Use

It is the People's Book.

God's Responsibility for the War

By EDWARD S. DROWN,
Of the Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, and Author of "The Apostles' Creed To-day"

Boards, 12mo, $.60

Why did God permit the war? If He is good, did He not want to prevent it? If He is almighty, could He not have done so? Can we continue to believe in God, the Father almighty?

This little book maintains that there is a false and a true idea of omnipotence. The false idea holds that God can do anything even if it involve a moral contradiction. The true idea interprets omnipotence in Christian terms as the omnipotence of the divine suffering love which must ultimately prove to be supreme power.

He calls on others to join him, "The Kingdom that must be Built" outlines his program. It calls for and is calculated to call out unused reserves in her members which will effect a Christian penetration of the world by the church, heretofore unknown.
